The Abrazar JARC program was developed to improve mobility management transportation services for employment and employment related activities for welfare recipients and low-income individuals. Abrazar's JARC program is focusing on individuals in need of mobility management services for work, job interview, job readiness preparation, job search, SparkPoint activities, job skills improvement (education, vocational studies) and our partner activities that support job access or related activities. Mobility management services includes training team members about our programs and the enrollment process. It also includes training for our transportation team and partners that will improve services for our clients (customer service, safety, driving, database management for transportation, etc.)
